SAFEGUARDING

Keeping young people safe

Every young person has the right to be safe. All our staff follow our safeguarding policy. If a young person tells us something worrying, we'll listen and take it seriously. We can't promise to keep it secret if someone is at risk of harm, and we'll explain what happens next. Our full policy is on the website.

In immediate danger? Call 999.

FOR PROFESSIONALS

Working together

We're an open-access, voluntary youth service run by Godalming Town Council, using the National Youth Agency's Youth Work Curriculum. We aren't a statutory, therapy or crisis service.

Talk to us about a young person who might benefit, or about working in your school or community. We already work at Broadwater School lunchtimes on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

Good to know

Who is it for?
Secondary-age young people who live in Godalming and nearby villages, or go to a Godalming school. Most sessions are for ages 11–17. Some are for particular year groups.

What does it cost?
Our groups are free. Godalming Town Council funds the service.

How do I sign up?
Complete one registration form a year. It covers emergency contacts, allergies and photo consent. Some events also need a separate sign-up, which we'll say on the poster.

Who looks after them?
Trained, DBS-checked youth workers. We aim for around one adult to every ten young people at the drop-in.

What happens at the drop-in?
Doors open at 3:00pm, then a short group chat and free time. We offer an optional activity at 3:45pm and toast at 4:00pm. Sessions end at 5:00pm.

Can they come and go?
Taking part is voluntary. Our "in once" rule means that if a young person leaves the building during a session, that's them finished for the day.

School holidays?
Programmes are announced about two weeks before term ends. Open sessions are for everyone, and popular events may need a sign-up. Club4 sessions need an Active Surrey eVoucher.

If they can't make it?
Please call or email, ideally the day before, so we can offer the place to someone else.
